

I implore you to not allow an expansion of the consolidation of media. It is bad enough that so much of our media is corporate-controlled; to open up our radio airwaves to further Clear Channeling would be against the very spirit of open discourse and access that this country was founded on.

If anything, the limits need to be even stricter in order to break up the media monopolies we see today.